

Onyedikachi Benjamin Ogbonna

PROFILE

Energetic and Passionate college student working towards my B.Sc. in Computer Science at the University of Abuja. I possess a strong drive for innovations; seeking an organization where I can apply the knowledge I have gained, hone my skills and contribute significantly to the growth of the organization while attaining excellent standards. I can work effectively with minimal supervision and also an excellent team player. I love Artificial Intelligence, and desire to learn about many different aspects of computer science to further my efficiency in my field.
